Dear General Heinz:

The second working group meeting of the Kennedy School's Intelligence Assessment and Policy Project has been scheduled for Wednesday, May 18. It will be held at Bacon House, 1801 F Street, N.W., in Washington; its subject will be U.S. policy toward the Philippines during the period leading to the departure of Marcos.

We will begin with a discussion from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. on the relationship between intelligence and policymaking in that case. We will continue the discussion over cocktails and dinner, turning especially toward contrasts between this case and earlier ones, such as the fall of the Shah, looking for broader lessons about the intelligence-policy interaction. We will conclude no later than 9:00. The group will consist of representatives from the intelligence and policy communities, as well as specialists on the Philippines and Kennedy School project members.

We know that your schedule is probably quite busy, and we are letting you know of this meeting primarily for your information. However, if you are able to fit it in, we would be happy to have you join us for the afternoon meeting and/or dinner. Please notify Lynn Whittaker, the project's research coordinator (617-495-1409), if you want to attend.

Thanks again for your willingness to serve on the Steering Committee of this project.

Sincerely,

Greg Trevorton
